PROFILE

Motivated and adaptable student currently in my senior year of high school, preparing to pursue a degree in Information Technology at the college level. Experienced in modeling, which has strengthened my confidence, professionalism, and presentation skills. Proficient in three languages (English, French, and Filipino), bringing strong communication and cultural adaptability. Passionate about technology, problem-solving, and continuous growth, to build a career in IT. Combines creativity, discipline, and technical curiosity, making me eager to contribute to innovative and dynamic environments.
